

We are pleased to state that our business this year shows a substantial increase over last year, which certainly must speak for itself as to Right Prices, Square Dealing and Quality Merchandise, and for the New Year to come you will find us striving to still further increase our business, lower our prices, and sell Better Quality Merchandise if such is obtainable.

Thanking our many Friends for their patronage and support during the past year and seeking a further continuance of the same for the coming year we extend every good wish for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Yours very sincerely

A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year to our Patrons and Friends

'Tis Christmas day, 'tis Christmas day!
Be glad, be glad, and sing;
All glory to our risen Lord!
All glory to our King!

Full hundred years ago

Within a little stall,

Was born the meek and lowly Babe

Who came to save us all.

Was it only yesterday that we celebrated Christmas? So it would seem for the months have been silently stealing by and here we are again, facing the same proposition, that of gathering together our Christmas thoughts of making out our Christmas list, shopping, making gifts, baking, cooking, getting ready for the one great day of the year. We are so intent on these things that we often lose sight of the origin of this blessed day, the birth of the meek and lowly babe, who came to save us all. The story is so old and has been repeated so often that the grand purpose fails to impress our hearts as it did when first we listened to the wondrous tale of the Babe born in Bethlehem, an "wise men and the shepherds" guided us to the stable of the inn.

Our children's hearts are awed by the thought of the little Babe surrounded by the hosts of the field, horned beasts, and the shepherds' flocks, and well we remember how the picture of the baby Jesus, with the wild eyed cattle in such proximity always sent a thrill of terror through us, for we were afraid of animals of all kinds, and indeed are still. We compared the coming of our own little sisters and brothers, cuddled in loving arms, and snow-white cradles to the infant born in the stable building, and when our mothers sat and hummed the old sweet lullaby, our hearts went out to the new-born Christ as she sang—

"Soft and easy is thy cradle,
Conceal and hard the Saviour lay;
For his birthplace was a stable,
And His softest bed was hay."

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

"Christmas comes but once a year" we are wont to say, Christmas with its merriment and good cheer, its holding forth for the children, its surprises for old and young, and above all, Christmas when grouches and grievances are laid aside, when all matters are overlooked and times found to be pleasant, really pleasant to those who love the most, to the friends who have come with us, to the next door neighbors and the neighbors down the street, to the people we meet in business or professional life, to the butcher, the baker, the candlestick-maker and even to the stranger we meet in the street. This is the very essence of Christmas, not the dinner we eat, nor the value of gifts we give or receive, but just this spirit of good-will and true courtesy. But we are a hustling, bustling, strenuous people, every one of us, young and old. We are busy with our toys, busy with our school, busy with the preparation for life, busy debutantes caught in a social whirl, busy matrons keeping up with the pace, busy housewives oppressed with many cares, busy ministers, doctors, lawyers, busy capitalists, day-laborers, drummers, busy heads of firms, busy office boys who find life one long, humdrum. Perhaps we are only busy creating our money, devising means of reducing our flesh, of adding to our portfolios, or even busy killing time but everyone of us is busy, busy, busy. Too busy are we as we awake in the morning to say to ourselves, "A Merry Day," and having said it, to set about making it, the best kind of a day possible, let come what will. At breakfast time we are shadowed by the tasks, the cares and the worries of the coming hours. We forget that God has given us another beautiful, new clean, white page, and instead of writing the introduction with golden words and smiles, we bolt it with our charivari. There is no time to gladden the maid with a gift of smiles, to cheer the clerk with words of commendation; no time to send husband, son and daughters forth to the battle of life equipped with pleasant memories; no time to start little children to school with their air of happiness; no time for the little thoughtfulness that will make brighter all the day for the ones who remain at home.

Once a year we have a kindly greeting for all whom we meet, for the employer, the bookkeeper, the office boy. Once a year we have a smile for all who serve us and for all whom we serve, for those who jostle us in the highways. Once a year we take out our Christmas spirit, shake out the dross, dust it, and the marvel is that we wear it so gracefully. We don it for the great occasion, for a few weeks previous and perchance, if our garments are in good repair, for a few days after, then we fold it up with moth balls and label it, "To be handled with care, not warranted to wear." Perhaps we toss it on the most shelf, or store it in the attic with other lumber that has seen more gracious days. Passing strange it is that comes out each year sweet and fresh and guaranteed to fit. What a blessed old world it would be if the Christmas spirit could be donned for each and every day of the year, if the song of the angels, "Peace on earth, good-will to man," found an echo in every heart, not one day in three hundred and sixty-five, but each and every day in all the year.

PEACE ON EARTH, GOODWILL TO MEN

No war or battles' sound
Was heard the world around;
The little spear and shield were high uphung;
The hooked chariot stood,
Unstain'd with hostile blood;
The trumpet spake not to the armed throng
And kings sat still with awful eye,
As if they surely knew their Sovereign Lord was by.
But peaceful was the sight,
When the Prince of Light,
His reign of peace upon the earth began."

Peace reigned throughout the world on that cold, wintry night, two thousand years ago, when the herald angels sang of the fulfillment of the promise of the ages, the coming of a savior, Christ, the Lord, born in a manger in Bethlehem, but a Prince, nevertheless, a Prince of Peace the only well-beloved Son of the King of Kings. Peace and joy mingled with awe in the hearts of the humble shepherds, who, hearing the song of the angelic host, left their flocks and hastened, never doubting, to pay homage to the long hoped for Messiah. Peace and joy in hope fulfillment compassed the Wise Men for the toil and weariness of the long journey over deserts and mountains as they hastened in adoration by the infant King and poured their treasures at His feet. Peace and joy filled the virgin mother who pondered all these things in her heart. And each recurring Christmas season through all the centuries has brought peace and good-will anew to the hearts of men, good-will in the smile on the lips and the friendly greetings; peace in the fact that the joyous season is no time for the bitterness and rankles, the unpleasant by-gones. Armies engaged in battle have ceased for a little their warfare and as brothers, the bitter toes have raised together their voices in a Christmas hymn of praise. Once a year, at least, there is no approach of the true brotherhood of man. The air is electric with good feeling and poor indeed is the man or woman, though endowed with all earth's riches, who is incapable of feeling the thrill of Christmas, the thrill of companionship in a common heritage with the whole world, the thrill of mystery, that, miracle-giving and gift-receiving, the thrill that comes through adding a little to the sum total of the world's happiness, of adding immensurably to the joy in the season of some one individual or individual.

PREMIER SIFTON ENTERS ACTION AGAINST BANKS

Edmonton, Dec. 17.—Attorney-General Mitchell entered action this afternoon against the Dominion bank, the Union Bank of Canada for payment to the province the proceeds of the bonds of the A. and G. W. Promptly the assent of his honour the lieutenant governor had been given to the bill. "Respecting the bond's guaranteed for the Alberta and Great Waterways railway company, being an act to specify certain defaults of the railway and the consequent rights of the province," Premier Sifton, as provincial treasurer, issued three cheques on the banks specified, for the portion of the bond proceeds deposited in them, respectively and payment to the account of the province in the Imperial bank of Canada.
The cheques were for the amount specified: Dominion bank, $400,000; Union bank, $1,000,000; and Royal Bank, $5,000,000, with accumulated interest in each case.
The cheques were presented at the local branches of the banks where payment was refused. The cheques were then sent to protest and the attorney-general issued writs on the banks for the respective amounts indicated.
Notices were at the same time served on the banks that interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum will be charged on the money until paid over to the province. It is anticipated that the Dominion and Union banks will pay the funds deposited with them into court thus ending the suits so far as they are concerned and leaving the courts to determine the disposition of the money.

have you heard the Edison Phonograph play an Amberol Record?

You can do this at the store of any Edison dealer. When you go, note the longer playing time of Amberol Records (playing twice as long as the Standard Edison Records); note the Amberol selections, not found on any other record of any kind; note also the reproducing point of the Edison Phonograph that never wears out and never needs changing; the motor, that runs as silently and as evenly as an electric device, and the special horn, so shaped that it gathers every note or spoken word and brings it out with startling fidelity. It is these exclusive features, vital to perfect work, that should claim your attention.

FARMERS PRESENT DEMANDS FOR BETTER TREATMENT

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—The long heralded event marking the beginning of a new era in the history of the development of the propaganda of the agriculturalists of the Dominion, the face to face talk between representatives of all Canada and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the members of his cabinet, commenced this morning in the chamber of the House of Commons. There at an early hour gathered the eight hundred delegates of the National Council of Agriculture to await the coming of the premier and his ministers. It had been proposed to march to "The Hill" in procession but the plan fell through and the delegates arrived in groups. By ten o'clock every seat in the chamber was occupied. The speakers and other galleries were crowded to their fullest capacity while many had to stand in the aisles.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's seat was occupied by Mr. D. W. Warner, a delegate from Edmonton, while another delegate from the soil sat in Mr. R. L. Borden's chair. When the ministers commenced to arrive chairs were at a premium and several of them had to be contented with the steps below the speaker's chair. All the members of the cabinet in the city were present including Sir Richard Cartwright, the old time apostle of free trade for Canada. Many senators and M. P.'s on both sides of the house were intermingled with the delegates. The atmosphere in the chamber was historic, the only thing approaching it in recent years the deputation which came here last year to protest against the co-operation bill, but the details of the day were not so momentous. Until the entrance of the premier there was a low hum of conversation and the members of the delegation. Until the entrance of the premier there was a low hum of conversation and the members of the delegation. Until the entrance of the premier there was a low hum of conversation and the members of the delegation.

Not a moment was lost in getting down to business. Mr. McQuig started the ball rolling in a short speech explanatory of the object of this unique gathering. He said that the delegates present represented nearly the whole Dominion and their presence in such numbers all would agree, was something out of the usual. The government was accustomed to receiving many delegations, but this was the first from the organized farmers of the Dominion. They had come to Ottawa at great expense and inconvenience and they felt justified in feeling that they would be able to demonstrate that they were in earnest in what they asked.

Mr. McQuig, after thanking the premier for the opportunity of meeting him under such favorable conditions, presented the resolution in respect to terminal elevators and called upon Mr. Peter Wright, of Myrtle, Man., to read the memorial in regard thereto. He did so in a refreshing and Scotch accent.

Farmers' Strong Case

Mr. E. W. Green, speaking for the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, said they had one hundred thousand members in good standing in that province. He read a memorial strongly advocating in respect to terminal elevators, in which the sentiment expressed by Mr. Wright was substantiated from the Saskatchewan standpoint. At the conclusion of Mr. Green's address, Mr. Chisholm, Conservative member for East Huron, stated that he approved of every contention made by the Saskatchewan Grain Growers, but thought the house of commons would be better able to deal with the question if they were given definite figures on the difference in price and standard of American and Canadian wheat.

Mr. Green replied that they could give definite information in regard to the price and standard of American and Canadian wheat.

Mr. J. J. Truitt, of the Alberta Association read a memorial on the terminal elevators question from the point of view of Alberta and farther west. The memorial stated that the cost of shipping through the eastern terminals was too great for the farmers of that province, and recommended that the government take immediate steps to erect adequate terminal accommodation on the Pacific coast.

Mr. E. B. Wood, of Hamilton, secretary of the Dominion Millers' Association, read a memorial which contended that so long as terminal elevators were allowed to mix grain, Canadian millers would not be able to turn out the best quality of flour.

Mr. Geo. B. Golden presented a memorial of the Ontario Millers' Association, which contended that the remedy for the evils which existed at terminal elevators was government ownership and operation.

Mr. Healey Shaw read the memorial on the Toronto Board of Trade favoring government ownership and operation of elevators as the only guarantee to the milling industry of grain delivered.

Capt. H. W. Richardson, speaking on behalf of grain growers and exporters of the east and west, strongly advocated the government ownership of terminal elevators. He believed the government would make a profit on their operation.

It was 11.40 before the presentation of the case in respect to terminal elevators was concluded.

Mr. McQuig read the resolution commending the establishment of a chilled meat industry and called upon this we do not complain.

FRUIT IS THE SAFETY VALVE

That Regulates the Body

"Fruit-a-lives" Is The Only Medicine Made of Fruit Juices.

"The Creator, in His wonderful economy, has always constructed with a purpose. He has distributed fruit all over the earth and has caused them to mature at a time when the solid and carbonaceous foods are not needed by the body. The latter only dig the vital machinery resulting in disease, whereas the juicy, stimulating properties of fruit keep the vital forces properly balanced and regulated."

GOODS HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Unfortunately for those who live in Canada, fresh fruit is expensive and in many localities almost impossible to get. But everyone can obtain "Fruit-a-lives," the famous tablets made of fruit juices, which contain the essence of the fruit of apples, oranges, lemons and pines—and is the greatest cure in the world for all troubles of Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Skin. In case of disease, and in prevention, "Fruit-a-lives" is far superior to fresh fruit.

A box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.

At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Mr. Warner, representing the United Farmers of Alberta, to read the memorial.

When Mr. McQuig rose to read the resolution urging the government construction ownership and control of the terminal elevators he was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers, which were repeated when he concluded. He called upon Mr. H. O. Hennessy, of Culross, Alta., to read the memorial. The reading of the document was punctuated with applause.

Mr. James Bower, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, presented the memorial suggesting amendments to the railway act. No formal resolution on this subject was adopted by the conference.

Chief counsel the resolution in support of co-operation, and E. J. Fries, secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta, read a memorial in support of it and called for legislation at this session to authorize remuneration.

At 12.30 Mr. McQuig read the resolution suggesting that amendments to the bank act in connection with the tariff question was presented.

The tariff question was the most important of all the questions which the farmers desired to present to the government. He read the memorial in a condensed form and excited cheers on several occasions, more particularly when he mentioned the desire of the farmers to increase the British preference and to accept direct taxation, if necessary, to meet any decline in revenue brought about by a reduction in customs duties.

Mr. J. W. Scallion, honorary president of the Manitoba Grain Growers Association, was first called upon to support the resolutions.

Mr. E. C. Drury, president of the Dominion Grange, read the memorial for that association and declared that the present tariff stimulated manufacture to the disadvantage of agriculture. His points were enthusiastically received by the delegates. There was wild cheering when he stated that the farmers of both the east and west were unanimous in demanding the tariff be lowered.

Mr. Thomas McMillan, of the Dominion Grange, in support of the resolutions, said the farmers were willing in the sale of their products to meet the open competition of the world.

He complimented the minister of agriculture for what had been done to perfect the transportation facilities for the conveyance of mail and produce to the markets of the world. He expressed the belief that a reasonable reciprocal agreement with the United States would contribute to the welfare of the Canadian farmers. It would do more for the best industry of Ontario than all the government enactments of a generation.

Col. John Fraser, of Brant County, Ontario, was the next supporter of the resolutions called upon.

Mr. Duncan Pavett, of New Brunswick, warmly advocated a reciprocity treaty with the United States.

Other speakers were Mr. Johnson, who spoke on behalf of the farm interests of Ontario and suggested free trade in apples; J. C. Parker, Nova Scotia, who on behalf of the fruit growers of Nova Scotia, advocated the same idea; Robert Sellers, of Kingston, Que., who said that it was not fair that farmers should any longer be asked to pay tribute to favored classes. They had, he said, upheld a banner which would not be furled again until they had accomplished their ends.

Finally before Sir Wilfrid's reply, Mr. J. MacKenzie, read the memorial on the tariff adopted at yesterday's meeting.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier at two o'clock after listening for four hours to the resolutions, memorials and speeches, rose to reply. He was greeted with cheers. He said he would be glad to express his gratification at being asked to receive such a representative delegation. They had no doubt, he said, that the facts and views expressed, even if they did not share them, were presented at the Dominion. He noted that while the delegates seemed to be of the western spirit, prepared for the domination of the west at an early date. (Laughter.) The fact that the facts are more advanced and radical than of the east, but of this we do not complain.

The Times

THURSDAY, DEC. 22nd

TEMPERANCE COLUMN Edited by The W. C. T. U.

BARS VERSUS INDUSTRIES

Among the forcible statements made public by the Wetaskiwin County Temperance and Moral Reform League in connection with the present Local Option campaign, the subjoined is exceedingly forcible and ought to have careful attention.

Above title is appropriate, "bars" as we are against, and the licensed has been certainly against every industry Wetaskiwin has had, has now or ever will have. Every manufacturer, every farmer or a thousand miles away. It will produce a better article and second at a less ratio of expense than their competitor, who may be ten or a hundred or a thousand miles away. If Wetaskiwin factories have the open bars and their competitors have none Wetaskiwin's industries suffer.

Five hundred employees of a plant may be likened to a chain of five hundred links. If one link or employee is absent it causes trouble. On Monday morning or after pay day, twenty-five or fifty employees are drunk and absent and the result is that the rest are put to a disadvantage, a smaller quantity of goods are turned out and a poorer quality. Again those who drink but still can work, are not capable of doing the same quality and quantity of work as those who do not drink. Someone says why not discharge those who drink. Suppose they did and started to-morrow with five hundred men who never drank. You license bars to start these men drinking, and they would soon get some of them. Why jeopardize Wetaskiwin's industries?

The Massey-Harris Company, known not only from the Atlantic to the Pacific, but all over the world, know full well these facts. What did they do? There was a licensed bar across the street from one of their factories furnishing drink and making their workmen drunk, causing them great financial loss. They paid the owner of the bar and paid him $5,000 as a bonus and closed the bar in order that they might run their factory satisfactory.

What did J. R. Booth, a large employer of labor, know all over Canada? He agreed to pay and has been paying for years, and is now paying the city of Wetaskiwin $2,000 yearly for the bar and not allowing any bars near his works.

These transactions were not from sentiment, purely desire to keep the bars away, that the factories might flourish. Citizens of Wetaskiwin and Wetaskiwin County, you have frequently shown your desire to secure and foster industries. It is wise to get busy to work against these industries trying to banish the bars and give our industries a chance to flourish—Moral Reform League.

TEMPERANCE HOTELS

"Restaurants and Alcohol" is a part of hotel advertisement not frequently seen now-a-days in European journals. It is a fact that all over the continent the danger of indulgence in alcoholic liquors is being proclaimed with a diligence that must be exceedingly effective. In different prominent watering places, hotels advertise the fact that they do not furnish alcoholic beverages to guests. This of itself is an indication of a growing sentiment that is full of promise and encouragement.

One of the brightest rays of Christ has been that enters 12,000 homes in Alberta, British Columbia and Saskatchewan this year is the Holiday number of the Farm and Ranch Review.

Editor Jacobs is a master at cover designing in colors, and this year gives us a striking production of the early winter sower, the Chrysanthemum. The effect is delightfully charming.

Looking over the pages we come to the announcement that the number is more particularly a children's issue, and to justify this statement there are articles and illustrations particularly suited for children, games, presents, dinners, stories, pictures, etc. In the more practical pages there are leading articles from A. F. Martin, deputy minister of agriculture, for Saskatchewan, on "The Farmer Who Doesn't Care," from D. W. Warner, Edmonton, on "What I Raise and Why," from A. B. Wilson, Indian Head, "How I Maintain the Fertility of My Land," from Low Hutchinson, Duhamel, ("Porkies"), on "The Passing of the Barbary," from N. E. Barker, Carleton Place, on "Our Poultry Shows," from W. S. Jacobs, Munson, on "Agricultural Society Work," and upon all this abundance of profound thought and experience a synopsis by G. H. Hutton, of the Experimental Farm, Lacombe, on the work and crops of 1910.

The Xmas number of the Review goes to all regular subscribers and will be sent to new subscribers as long as the supply lasts. It is another of those many agencies that remind us that the West is rounding out into a truly metropolitan community, for all the work of publishing and illustrating is done at Calgary and Edmonton.

Ottawa, Dec. 19.—J. Douglas, member for Strathcona, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is reported to be much better to-day and it is alleged that he is now out of danger.

Jan. Mann, the C.P.R. conductor, who suffered the loss of a foot in an accident which befell him near Hartley nearly a month ago, is now so recovered that he will leave the Hotel Hospital this week for his home in Wetaskiwin. Mr. Mann slipped under the train in attempting to mount when it was in motion and his usual agility prevented his losing both legs.

POACHED EGGS

"That delightful entertainer, Polz diller, tells a rather amusing story of eggs. A traveling man administered in to order poached eggs when at a strange tavern, for the reason that a cold-storage egg refused to be done in that style.

The very next morning the colored waiter asked Polz how he would have his eggs, and he ordered them poached. A few minutes later his Afro-A series fellow-citizen shuffled back to be table with the delicious tidings: "Here, do your eggs in oil, but not as some nice scramble eggs."
